Romulus Youths Were Big Winners at Metro Area's Junior Olympics Meet

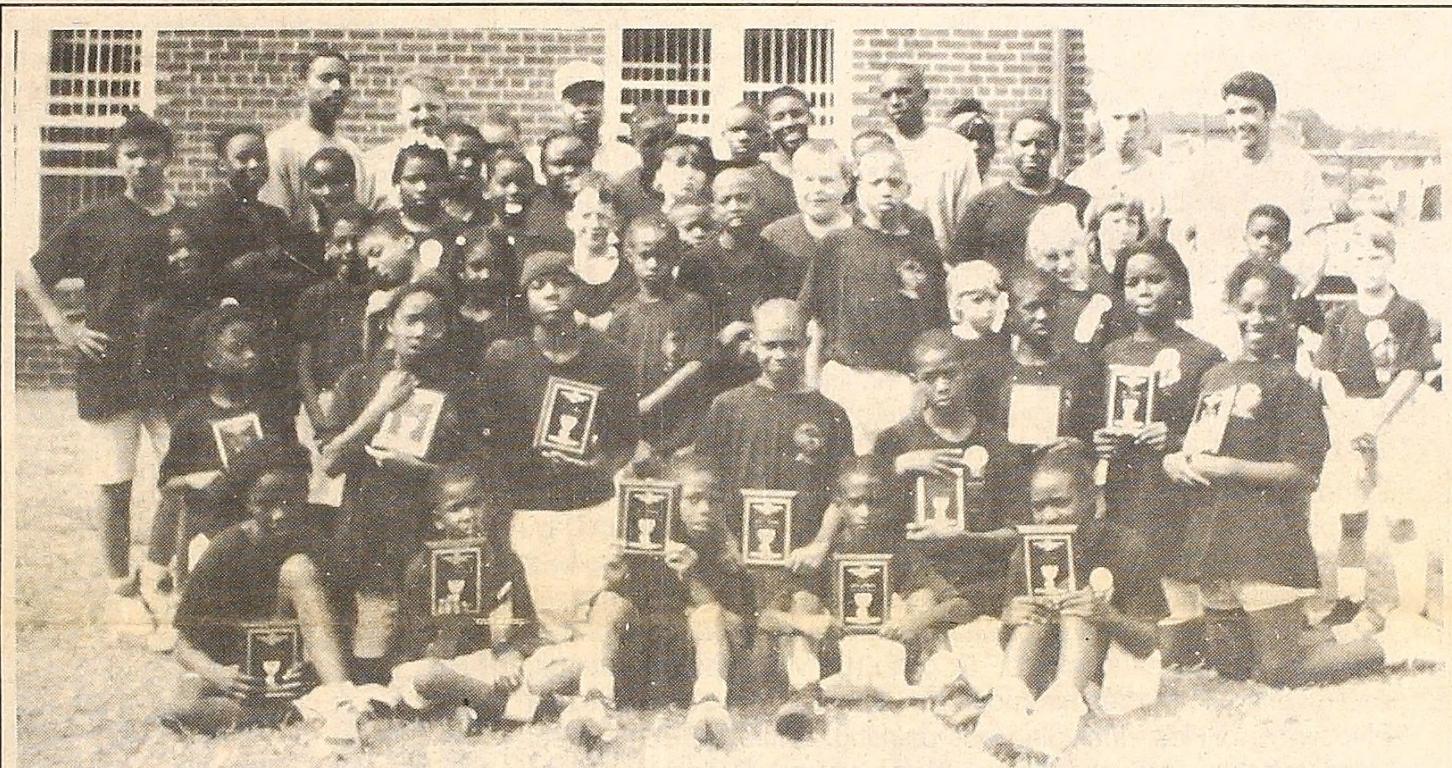

When the Romulus Recreation Department's Junior Olympics team competed with squads from 48 other communities in the 37th annual Detroit Metropolitan Area Junior Olympics, held on July 27 at Belle Isle Park in Detroit, it came away with more plaques than any other team.

The Detroit Metropolitan Area Junior Olympics is an event which promotes total fitness for youngsters ages seven to 14.

Romulus kids won eight first-place awards, four second-place honors, and one third-place plaque. Overall, more than 2,500 Metro-Detroit area youths competed.

In the past, the Romulus Recreation Department has set aside one particular night for tryouts for the games; this year, staff members went to each of the six summer recreation sites to recruit potential team members. Later, practice trials were held to come up with the 42-member team.

Romulus youths taking first-place honors were Jeremiah Jones, Gary Johnson, Brandy Bell, and Stephanie Canada (Shuttle Relay Team, Mixed-A Division); and Craig Green, Tony Penn, Theresa Lang, and Latoya Pillow (Shuttle Relay Team, Mixed-C Division). Placing second were Aaron Brown, Perry Gray, Tiarra Lang, and Tishona Gregory (Shuttle Relay Team – Mixed-B Division). Finishing third in the Agility Run, B Division, was James Pruitt.

Other members of the Romulus Junior Olympics squad included: Kalene Harris, Shannon Ali, Lashanda Harris, Lila Ali, Jennifer Meyers, Latoya Hamilton, Latonya Taylor, Helen Stewart, Elaine Jones, Alexis Brown, Juanita Miller, Anna Meyers, Eric Stewart, Quentin Weldon, DeAndre Adams, Iseail Ali, Rashaad Best, Josh Neumann, Calvin Harris, Edward Bell, Melvin Stewart, William Jones, John Patterson, Chris Talley, Chris Rocker, Joe Miller, Shantez Gregory, Derrick Cohen, Kevin Thomas.

Romulus Recreation Program Coordinator Keith Brothers, who organized the team, said he was proud of the effort exhibited by all Romulus youngsters.

"Many other city recreation leaders commented on how well behaved and cooperative the Romulus delegation was," Brothers said. "All the coaches and team members should be very proud of their accomplishments."

Besides Brothers, the other Romulus coaches were Otha Green, Larry Jackson, Clifford Stewart, and Tiffanie Gregory.

Brothers also expressed his gratitude to the parents who helped make the program a success. □

Bennett Announces Drug-control Grants for the Wayne County Area

More than $786,000 in grants for drug control has been awarded to the County of Wayne, the City of Southgate, and the Township of Canton, according to Senator Loren Bennett (R-Canton Township) and Senator R. Robert Geake (R-Northville).

"These grants will go a long way toward helping our law enforcement officials keep illicit drug-use and distribution under control," Bennett said. "As such, these grants have the potential to keep young lives on the right track, while at the same time putting behind bars those criminals who are dealing these drugs to our children."

Geake stated, "These funds will also assist in the rehabilitation of those who have become addicted and are headed for a future of repeat offenses. By helping these people now and ruining the drug trade in the area, we can keep these citizens out of jail and in a life that is productive for all society." □

Senator Stille Announces Conclusion of Michigan School Code Hearings

State Senator Leon Stille (R-Spring Lake), chairman of the Senate Education Committee, has announced the conclusion of the committee's public hearings on the review of Michigan's School Code. The Code regulates a laundry list of school activities, including: standardized testing; busing; the length of the school year; teacher certification; core curriculum; and text books.

Review of the Code by the committee followed Governor John Engler's "State of the State Address," given on January 17 of this year, in which he called for the repeal of Michigan's School

Code of 1976. Engler was strongly critical of the Code, calling it outdated and outmoded.

Over the past six months, the Senate Education Committee held a series of 12 Statewide hearings to help the committee determine which sections of the Code should be eliminated or retained. During the course of the hearings, said Stille, the focus became one of revision rather than outright repeal.

The hearings were attended by more than 1,000 individuals, including educators, administrators, school board members, parents, students, and representatives from various associations.

SCHOOL CODE HEARINGS

"I'm pleased with the turnout that these hearings generated," said Stille. "We all have an interest in the education of our children, and all those who turned out to voice their concerns illustrated that," the former teacher added.

Stille said that items of primary concern expressed during the hearings included: core curriculum (mandated vs. model); teacher certification (elimination, fast track, or status quo); student assessment (Michigan Education Assessment Program, or MEAP, vs. alternatives); teacher tenure (eliminate, revise, or maintain status quo); attendance enforcement; infringements on teaching time (State mandates); schools of choice (general support); charter schools (their effects on existing schools); unified post-Labor Day school opening; proliferation of redundant and ridiculous reporting requirements; accreditation (State and voluntary); and a voucher system (pro and con).

"The input we've gathered during the last six months will be key to our efforts in revising the School Code this fall," Stille said. "I'm confident that the abundance of quality information we've received from across the State will help make Michigan's newly revised School Code as effective and responsive to citizens' needs as possible."

The committee will be working this fall on statutory language for school reform which will incorporate information gathered at the hearings.

Anyone interested in obtaining a copy of the School Code Hearings Final Report should call Bea Raymond in Senator Stille's office: 517-373-1635. □

Pitoniak Objects to Engler's "Plus Care" Funding Veto

Representative Gregory Pitoniak has expressed utter dismay at Governor John Engler's recent veto of funding for the Plus Care program in Wayne County. Plus Care is the coordinated inpatient-outpatient health-care program provided to over 40,000 indigent residents of Wayne County who are not eligible for Medicaid.

"Plus Care is the most efficiently run indigent-care program in the State," said Pitoniak. "For the Governor to veto funds for this program, which he helped establish, is beyond me." Over 40,000 people receive care under what Pitoniak described as a low-cost, managed-care program that saves both the State and private hospitals millions of dollars per year.

As it stands now, the County has lost $16 million for the program, said Pitoniak. The funding cut was part of an overall $50-million veto by Governor Engler of General Fund dollars in the Department of Social Services budget. Of that $50 million, $6.5 million was for Plus Care, which would have qualified the program for another $9.5 million in Federal matching funds.

"Without the State's share, this cost-effective program will be seriously compromised, turning away over 8,000 persons from managed care and forcing them back into using extremely costly hospital emergency rooms," Pitoniak explained. If the medical care for these people is dumped back into the State's hands, he added, the cost will be many times the $6.5 million that Governor Engler has cut from next year's budget. "It seems as though the Governor is punishing Wayne County for running a fiscally responsible program," he concluded.

Plus Care was developed approximately four years ago through a unique partnership between Wayne County, local hospitals, and the State of Michigan. Plus Care operates in place of the State Medical Plan which serves indigent populations in all other counties in the State. As Plus Care operates today, the cost to the State is $12 per person per month. All other State-run indigent-health-care programs cost Michigan taxpayers nearly four times this amount per person. □

Social Security Administration: 60 Years and Still Going Strong

By Frances M. Heimes-Savickis, field representative for the Social Security Administration

August 14, 1995 marks the 60th anniversary of the signing of the Social Security Act — legislation that now touches the lives of nearly every U.S. citizen. More than 90% of all workers are in jobs covered by Social Security, and one in every six Americans receives a monthly Social Security benefit.

But, as important as it is, Social Security was never intended to be the sole provider of a person's financial security. Instead, Social Security is intended as a partial replacement of wages lost because of retirement, disability, or death.

It's easy to get an estimate of the Social Security retirement, survivors, and disability benefits that you and your family may be eligible for in the future. Visit any Social Security office, or you can call 1-800-772-1213 to ask for a Form SSA-7004 (Request for Personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement). The toll-free number responds to requests around the clock, including weekends and holidays. □

New Patients Welcome

For the first time in the history of the British post office, Queen Elizabeth II has personally approved the issuance of a postage stamp commemorating pop culture legends.

"The Queen of England never intended for this act to start a worldwide controversy; however, it is shocking that Her Majesty has chosen to honor American icons Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe before such British pop stars as John Lennon and the Beatles," said John Van Emden, president of the International Collectors Society in Owings Mills, Maryland, exclusive distributors of the stamps in the U.S. "Still, collectors have shown overwhelming support for her decision by making this commemorative stamp set the hottest collectible in the world today."

The beautiful and colorful stamp, which pictures Elvis and Marilyn in a very romantic pose, is about four times the size of a regular U.S. stamp and is set inside a special commemorative sheet. Featured in the upper right corner of the stamp is the Queen's Royal Cipher, indicating that this unique issue has received her approval.

The commemorative stamp set is issued as a Limited Edition of just thousands worldwide, and comes with a numbered Certificate of Authenticity and a deluxe holder suitable for long-term storage. The stamps are Legal Tender for postage in Montserrat and are accepted by every postal authority around the world.

"When you compare this tiny worldwide Limited Edition to the recent U.S. Elvis and Marilyn stamps, where over 900 million were issued, you can see the irresistible appeal that this Commemorative stamp set has for Elvis fans, Marilyn fans, and stamp collectors," Van Emden explained.

Gotta have 'em? These Commemorative sets are available for a short time at $9.96 plus $3.00 postage and handling. They are accompanied by a numbered Certificate of Authenticity, and the free pocket guide, "99 Little-known Facts about Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe." Send your check or money order (the most you can order is six sets) to International Collectors Society, 10045 Red Run Boulevard, Suite 170G, Owings Mills, Maryland 21117. ## "Big Top" Reading Program Winds Up with a Big Bang!

A performance of "Frizby's Summer Circus" by Chicago's Time Step Players kicked off this summer's highly successful "Under the Big Top" Summer Reading Program.

By Shelley DeLano, youth services librarian

The final session of the Romulus Public Library's Summer Reading Program (SRP), "Books Under the Big Top," was a huge success! Children and parents were entertained by Walsh Works Music with interactive circus activities. The children were the actual entertainers, and they did a great job on such short notice.

Thanks to the Friends of the Library for providing all the entertainment and their help at the party. Cookies and drinks (provided by McDonald's) were enjoyed by everyone.

Each child who participated in the SRP received a bag of goodies to keep him/her busy for the remainder of the summer—and, of course, they will continue to keep reading because reading is what the program is all about.

During the seven weeks of the "Big Top" program, the children read for 59,252 minutes; that amount was an increase of over 12,000 minutes from last year. We hope to keep building up the number of minutes each year.

The Popcorn Kernels Counting Contest was won by two young ladies who guessed closest to the actual number of 1995: Kimi Sugiyama, with a guess of 1824, and Danielle Ruffolo, with a guess of 1999. They won scented colored markers and large, three-pound bags of popped popcorn.

Other small prizes were won by: Katy Butzin, Elizabeth Doman, Monica Trombly, Amber Netter, Jacob Schiff, Kaitlyn Rhoades, Kyle Hines, David Butzin, Arlennea Savage, Timmy Phelps, Dana Wawrzyniec, Rebecca Jameson, Kimi Sugiyama, Shennoa Blake, Benjamin Schiff, Meaghan Rhoades, Teela Carroll, Jonathan Poma, Frank Bazan, Danielle Ruffolo, Rory Frank, Andrzej Jan Kupraszewica, Natalie Blake, Nicole Carroll, Michael Doman, Rebecca Swindler, Chris Koch, Lauren Nierman, and Antoinette Ruffolo.

Children who were registered for the program but could not make it to the party are welcome to pick up their certificate and goody bag at the Library.

We had a wonderful time at the Library this summer, and we hope to see you all again next summer! . . . But don't wait that long to visit us! Come in soon and check out some great books, magazines, videos, or books on tape. □
